McGinnis Theory & Practice

McGinnis Theory & Practice is a therapy clinic founded by a neuroscientist with a background in substance abuse treatment. It offers life coaching services to help clients address issues within their lives. This practice has particular experience with issues of codependency, perfectionism, anger management, and borderline thought patterns. Clients typically attend initial observation sessions and then participate in custom treatment plans that address their individual needs. Couple and family therapy sessions are available.

Why These Life Coaches?

Our goal is to connect people with the best local experts. We scored Phoenix Life Coaches on more than 25 variables across five categories, and analyzed the results to give you a hand-picked list of the best.

REPUTATION

Analyze Review Data

We scour public records and information to determine each provider's reputation. Every provider is analyzed based on the number of professional databases reviewing them, their average review score, and the volatility of their ratings.

AVAILABILITY

Finding Potential Picks

First, we identify all the potential providers in a community. We use public databases and customer referrals to collect an exhaustive list of local businesses, checking their availability and service areas.

QUALIFICATIONS

Look for Accreditations, Awards, and Licenses

Next, we validate each business' qualifications. We know which professions require a license or certification to operate in your area, and we find providers who have gone above and beyond to educate themselves in their area of expertise.

EXPERIENCE

Assess Service Capabilities

After our screening processes, we select our finalists based on a provider's primary area of expertise, the variety of services they offer, and their years of experience.

PROFESSIONALISM

Mystery Shopping

Finally, our mystery shoppers call each company, identifying themselves as potential customers, to gauge knowledgeability, friendliness, and professionalism.

Our Selection Process

Expertise.com finds and reviews the top service professionals in over 200 industries across the U.S. Each month, we research more than 60,000 businesses to help customers find the best-qualified professional for their needs. Our research process is always evolving to keep up with industry changes, so we're confident that when we say a provider is one of the best, it is.
